From the President
ANDREA E. CHAPDELAINÉ, PH.D.

President Chapdelaine's latest update highlights recent initiatives and events at Connecticut College: the launch of the Working Group on Freedom of Expression and Assembly, efforts to strengthen relationships with tribal neighbors through cultural heritage preservation, and the creation of a College archaeologist position. It celebrates the success of the All-College Symposium, showcasing students' transformative academic journeys. The men's soccer team advances to the NCAA Division III semifinals, and alumni are invited to upcoming holiday gatherings in Boston and New York.
